The District of Columbia (District) Department of Human Services (DHS) Burial Assistance Program provides help paying for the funeral costs of District residents who died with few resources. Relatives of the individual who died may apply for Burial Assistance. A relative can ask someone else called an "authorized representative" to fill out the application for them. Only one individual can apply for burial assistance on behalf of a deceased individual. The individual applying on behalf of the deceased individual must have the authority to make burial arrangements.

Right and Responsibilities You have a right to have your application acted on in a timely manner. DHS will process the application within 3 business days from the date you submit the application and provide all required information.

- 1. If you are dissatisfied with any action or lack of action by DHS, you have a right to request a fair hearing. You can request a fair hearing by telling your caseworker that you want to request a hearing, by calling the Office of the Administrative Review and Appeals at (202) 698-4147, or by contacting any ESA office. You need to request a hearing within ten (10) calendar days of the date of your decision notice. You have a right to obtain legal counsel at the hearing.
- 2. You have a right to register to vote here today. The SSR will ask you if you want to register to vote here today.

Each individual submitting an application on behalf of a deceased relative has the following responsibilities.

- 1. You must provide complete and accurate information to the best of your ability.
- 2. You must provide proof of certain information, including the income and assets of the deceased and the spouse if married, and parent(s) if the deceased is a minor child.
- 3. If burial assistance is awarded, the burial must be conducted by one of the undertakers with which the Department of Human Services as a contract. Unless an oversized casket is needed, the total of the funeral must not exceed $2000.00 (This $2000.00 figure does not include opening and closing costs). If an oversized casket is needed, the cost of the funeral must not exceed $3000.00.

Your Signature

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that all statements on this application are true. I agree to cooperate with the Department of Human Services (DHS) by using my own resources to meet as much as possible my need. I agree to present all verifying documents requested or to authorize the Department to obtain them. I have read and understand the Rights and Responsibilities information included in this section. I certify that I have the authority to make funeral arrangements on behalf of the deceased.

If your benefits change, we will send you a notice. If you do not agree with the change in benefits, you may request a Fair Hearing. If you think that DHS has made a mistake, then you can get a Fair Hearing. Call (202) 698-4650 to find out more. You can also call (202) 727-8280.
